TODAY'S GAME

Today the Warriors will host the Northern State Wolves (1-2, 0-1 in NIC) in the Warriors annual Parents Day. The Wolves are coached by first year mentor Bob Bollinger. Shaun Wanner will direct a Wolves offense which has averaged 239.7 yards per game this season. Wanner has completed 50% of his passes with his favorite receiver being tight end Randy Knecht with 12 receptions for 137 yards. The Wolves like to air the ball out throwing on 63% of their offensive plays as their rushing attack has averaged just 44 yards a game and they are averaging under 2 yards rushing per carry. Both squads have had their difficulty in the first quarter with the Wolves being outscored 16-0 and the Warriors are being outscored 37-7 in the first fifteen minutes of action.

Warrior quarterback Scott Moses has thrown for 7 touchdown passes in his last 3 games but his favorite receiver Darren Ripley is listed as probable today after suffering a dislocated fibula in the Eau Claire game. The Warriors top rusher Russ Bjerke is listed as doubtful today because of a knee injury also suffered against Eau Claire. On defense the Warriors are led by linebacker Dave Hope who has 40 tackles and 29 assisted tackles in 4 games this season and he has led the club in tackles in each game this season.

THE ENEMY: POTHOLE

Cracks, sudden bumps and cavernous pot-holes exact a terrible toll from tires.

But the Goodyear Vector is engineered to help meet the challenges of today's roads.

Its backbone of belted steel helps resist the punishment of torn-up roads. While its aggressive criss-cross tread helps prevent hydroplaning and gives you excellent traction on snow, slush or ice.

The unique all-season Goodyear Vector. The next best thing to having every road freshly paved.

Vector  It simply performs like no other tire in the world.
